Calculate your score

For every question you answered with 1, give yourself 3 points. For every question you answered with 2, give yourself 2 points, for every question you answered with 3, give yourself 1 point.

14 – 18 points: You are a great leader. You like to be in charge of all situations and do it very well.

10 – 13 points: You could be a leader if you try. Try to identify the areas in which you can improve, but if you work hard you will have a great impact on others.

6-9 points: You prefer to follow others and that is ok. Team players are very important and necessary.

Did you know that...

many of the people we recognize as leaders say that they didn't want to become leaders? They just did something they were passionate about.

¿Sabías que...

muchos de los líderes que conocemos no buscaban ser líderes? Solo decidieron hacer lo que realmente les apasionaba.

ACTIVITY 4

Can you be a climate change leader? Read Mario's checklist and learn the skills he has to improve. Then, create your own checklist and decide what skills you need to improve.

Take Action!

You don't need to follow someone else's lead all the time. Sometimes, it is important to take the initiative and lead others, including friends and peers, especially for causes that you are passionate about, such as fighting climate change.
